WITH THE EXPERTS

It's an election year. Will homecare issues get the attention they deserve in your community?

Join the government relations staff of the American Association for Homecare for a brisk conversation about easy steps anyone can take to get homecare on the election agenda in your Congressional district. Topics will include:

- Scheduling and conducting a professional meeting with Congressional Members and staff.
- Building relationships with your Members of Congress.
- Effective calls, emails, and site visits.
- Getting your message into the press.
- Engaging your staff, patients, and families in a grassroots push.
- Mistakes to avoid.

To participate, simply return this form with the $49 member/$99 nonmember registration fee by Friday, August 4, to Kim Kianka Roberti, Senior Director, Education & Meetings, AAHomecare, 625 Slaters Lane, Suite 200, Alexandria, VA 22314 or fax (703) 836-6730. You will receive explicit instructions on how to connect to the teleconference and the teleconference handouts via email. No refunds after August 1.
